Veterans Disappointed at Action of Government

A great deal of consternation and bitterness has been created amongst the Canadian Veterans because the Dominion Government has refused to meet a committee of the veterans at Ottawa to discuss the matter of a gratuity or bonus to them for their great services to the country. This information reached Calgary on Saturday and naturally has caused some bitter feeling.

Reports from all over Canada state that great indignation exists because of this arbitrary action and strong action will be taken to get them to reverse that decision.

Has Started Business in Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Good and family left Didsbury, on Wednesday to make their home in Calgary, where Mr. Good has accepted the management of a new organization to manufacture all kinds of culverts, tanks and road supplies. The new company in which Mr. Good is interested is called the Economy Culvert and Road Supply Company and with his experience in this line his many friends in this district feel that he will be a great success.

Mr. Good has been living in this district for the past fifteen years and during that time has taken great interest in the many activities that have been necessary towards putting Didsbury into its present condition, and while, as he says, he will now be away from it, he will always feel that he has an interest in it.

His many friends here will wish both himself and his family the best of success and good luck and will watch the new venture with interest.

It is not generally known that at the time Mr. Good was in the Culvert business in town, when he patented his new culvert head, he was given a complimentary membership in the American Institute of Inventors and also made a member of the construction committee of the same organization, and it is the same invention that has partially been the means of forming the new manufacturing company in Calgary.

Good News if True.

The Guaranty Trust Company of New York has for some time past published twice a month a review of trade and financial conditions which has made many accurate forecasts of the trend of these. Those who have read it constantly will attach much importance to what it says in its last issue. It declares that it hesitates very much to offer any opinion which will seem to belittle the seriousness of the difficulties that have yet to be met before normality in trade relations and

But it is convinced from accumulated evidence gathered by competent observers that there is "now little room for doubt that the lowest point in the economic state of the world was passed some time back and that, whatever may be the temper of the present moment, from this time forth progress must be ever more rapid toward stability and prosperity."—Edmonton Journal.

To the Members of the Didsbury Curling Club, Limited

WHEREAS, the "Didsbury Curling Club" is indebted to the Union Bank of Canada, AND WHEREAS, the said Bank has been pressing for payment, We, the undersigned members of the "Didsbury Curling Club, Limited," hereby call a general meeting of the members of this Company to be held in the office of W. G. Liesemer, Didsbury, Alberta, at the hour of 8 o'clock in the evening on Tuesday, the 16th day of September, 1919.

AND TAKE NOTICE that the following extraordinary resolution will be introduced.

"RESOLVED THAT, it has been proved to the satisfaction of the members of the "Didsbury Curling Club, Limited," that the said Company cannot by reason of its liabilities continue its business, and that it is advisable to wind up the same.

AND TAKE FURTHER NOTICE, that we shall endeavour to have a liquidator appointed for the purpose of winding up the affairs of the Company."

Stop Decrying The Farm

Confronted with the task of reorganizing Canada on a peace basis following the upheaval of the Great War, and faced with the necessity of discharging that task under entirely new conditions and with a new social order demanded by all, thinking men and women all over the Dominion are endeavoring to ascertain what is Canada's most pressing need and how that need can be supplied.

It seems to be fairly generally accepted that from a financial, economic and purely business standpoint the most pressing national need of this Dominion is that all men and women shall become imbued with the ambition to work as they have never worked before, and by their labor produce from the natural resources of this country the wealth which will enable Canada to meet its enormous war debt and heavy national obligations, and discharge the duties and responsibilities imposed upon it.

Opinion, however, is divided as to the policies to be inaugurated and the methods employed to bring about this development of our natural resources and consequent greater production of wealth. Consequent upon this division of opinion, many phases of the big problem have become political issues in a partisan sense, one party advocating one policy, another party upholding an entirely different policy and course of action. In regard to those aspects of this problem which have become subjects of political controversy it is not the function nor intention of the writer of this article to deal. We leave them to governments and politicians, and to the people who, by the exercise of their franchise, make or unmake governments and politicians.

In the final analysis, however, it is the farmers of Canada who must largely solve the problem which confronts Canada today. Farmers represent the greatest and the basic industry of Canada. As a class they constitute the largest group in our population. They are the largest primary producers of wealth in this Dominion. Unless agriculture succeeds, Canada cannot grow and prosper. These are self-evident facts. It is important, therefore, that the country should be impressed by them, and that all governments in Canada should govern themselves accordingly. The government that devotes itself most assiduously to the welfare and promotion of successful agriculture in Canada will prove to be the best government.

However, while governments can do much, and ought to do far more than they have done in the past to encourage and develop the business of farming, there are some things which the people, and more particularly the farmers, must do themselves. Some of these things were referred to by Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture for Alberta, in a recent speech which is deserving of the widest possible publicity.

First and foremost, declared Mr. Marshall, it is our duty to see to it that the farmers' sons and daughters throughout the entire Dominion are so effectively trained that they will be qualified to make the best farmers and farmers' wives that can be found anywhere in the civilized world. He arraigned Canadian governments for their failure to spread agricultural education throughout Canada. "Never in Canada's history," he said, "was the need of agricultural education so serious. Never in public school did a teacher tell me it would be a fine thing to be a farmer. I never had a teacher say to me that it would be the finest and best ambition to settle down and endeavor to become the best cultivator of land and best live stock breeder in the county of Bruce. I am a big short-horn breeder in Alberta in spite of the education I got in Ontario. In Belgium, the best draft horse breeding country in the world, I find in the school text books such lines as 'this horse is a good horse because his feet are sound,' and 'this horse is a strong horse because his back is short.' When I read that I understand why Belgium beats the world in horse breeding, and then I think of the stuff they told me about the cat and the rat and the hut and the mat."

Mr. Marshall continued: "We have got to teach the boys and girls in the public schools that the finest business in this world, the one that offers the biggest opportunity for home building and the greatest opportunity to become a useful citizen is that of tilling the soil on a good farm. We have got to get away from this business of belittling the farmer, and there have been many farmers engaged in running down their own business more than anybody else. They say that it is drudgery, and the ladies at times have said such things as, 'Poor girl, she married a farmer.' That is the kind of thing I want to get out of the minds of the sons and daughters of this Dominion of Canada."

And who will say Mr. Marshall is not right? One never hears of a lawyer, a doctor, or a manufacturer decrying his business, nor their wives and children so. On the contrary, they boast of their occupations as the best and finest in the world. We all need to stop decrying the farming business, and, on the other hand, to give Canadian boys and girls an inspiration to take up agriculture. The welfare of our people and our national stability depends upon it.

His Chief Want

The parlor Bolshevik had the floor. "I want land reform," he shrieked. "I want education reform. I want church reform. I want marriage reform. I want—"

But here a listener interrupted with a loud and savage yawn: "What you want, old man," he said, "is chloroform."

It Eases Pain.—Ask any druggist or dealer in medicines what is the most popular of the medicinal oils for pains in the joints, in the muscles or nerves, or for neuralgia and rheumatism, and he will tell you that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is in greater demand than any other. The reason for this is that it possesses greater healing qualities than any other oil.

Third Dose Relief! Fifth Dose! Diarrhoea Stopped.

Diarrhoea does not need to persist for any length of time until the whole system is weakened and debilitated. No other disease so quickly undermines the strength and brings about a condition of prostration and very often total collapse.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is not only prompt and effective in checking the diarrhoea, but at the same time acts as a stimulant, strengthens the heart and braces up the whole system, and one of its principal points is that it does not leave the bowels in a constipated condition.

Mr. W. H. Arnold, Fort Qu'Appelle, Sask., writes: "A few years ago while out thrashing, I had a severe attack of diarrhoea. Nothing I took seemed to do me any good. I was getting worse all the time. Hearing that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry was good for diarrhoea, I went into town and procured a bottle. After the third dose I felt relief, and after I had taken the fifth dose the diarrhoea had stopped. I always keep it in the house, and would not be without it."

See that you get the original "Dr. Fowler's." It has been on the market for the past 74 years. Substitutes may endanger your health. Price 35c. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

LEMON JUICE IS FRECKLE REMOVER

Girls! Make This Cheap Beauty Lotion to Clear and Whiten Your Skin

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear, and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.

Big Expenditure at North Battleford

One hundred thousand dollars is the estimated cost of the new buildings being constructed by the Canadian National railways at North Battleford. The new works include a 13-stall roundhouse, a new machine shop, 86 by 40 feet, a new compressed air driven turntable, and a complete new equipment for the machine shop. The new roundhouse is being built in the rear of the existing one, and is half as big again as the present structure. Some idea of the amount of concrete called for in the specifications can be gathered from the fact that over 1000 barrels of cement will be used.

Canadian Soldiers Wanting Land

Approximately 6,500 Loans Granted Through the Board to Former Soldiers

Regina.—To the end of July, 25,000 applications had been made to the Soldiers' Settlement Board by returned soldiers wishing to go on the land, according to Col. R. Innes, director of the agricultural branch of the board's work, who paid an inspection visit here. Of these, 22,000 had been disposed of and 74 per cent. of the 22,000 actually had been approved. Approximately 6,500 loans had been granted through the board to former soldiers and 3,500 discharged men had been given free land grants. The total expenditures to July 31 amounted to $20,500,000 and the average loan was $3,100. There was no sign of falling off in the demand for loans, according to Colonel Innes, and settlement was well distributed throughout the entire country. At present there were 600 returned soldiers in the various training centres acquiring experience in farming before taking up land.

All Night with Asthma.—Everyone knows how attacks of asthma often keep their victim awake the whole night long. Morning finds him wholly unfitted for a day of business, and yet, business must still be carried through. All this night suffering and lack of rest can be avoided by the prompt use of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy, which positively does drive away the attacks.

Livestock Industry in North

Some idea of the extent of the livestock industry in the Battleford district can be gained from the fact that 120 cars of stock have received official certificates for shipment since July 1. A considerable portion of the shipments was from the Turtleford branch, along which thousands of cattle are being fattened upon the prairie grasses. It should be understood that this shipment represents fat stock and cattle have not been rushed to market in an unfinished condition because of shortness of feed, which is responsible for heavy shipments in some dry areas.

A MOTHER'S TRIALS

Care of Home and Children Often Causes a Breakdown

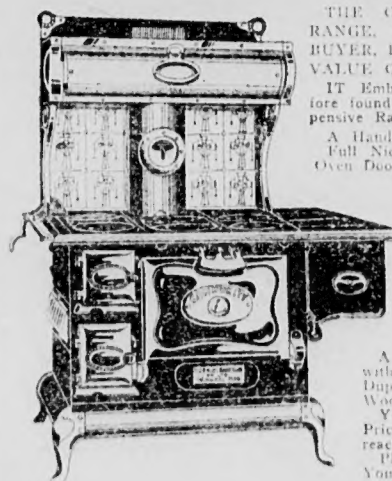

The woman at home, deep in household duties and the cares of motherhood, needs occasional help to keep her in good health. The demands upon a mother's health are many and severe. Her own health trials and her children's welfare exact heavy tolls, while hurried meals, broken rest and much indoor living tend to weaken her constitution. No wonder that the woman at home is often indisposed through weakness, headaches, backaches and nervousness. Too many women have grown to accept these visitations as a part of the lot of motherhood. But many and varied as her health troubles are, the cause is simple and the cure at hand. When well, it is the woman's good blood that keeps her well; when ill, she must make her blood rich to renew her health. The nursing mother more than any other woman in the world needs rich blood and plenty of it. There is one always unfailing way to get this good blood so necessary to perfect health, and that is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills make new blood abundantly, and through their use thousands of weak, ailing wives and mothers have been made bright, cheerful and strong. If you are ailing, easily tired, or depressed, it is a duty you owe yourself and your family to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. What this medicine has done for others it will surely do for you.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 10, 1919.

Simple Justice.

The action of the Dominion Government last week in refusing to meet a committee of the Great War Veterans in Ottawa to discuss the matter of a gratuity in a lump sum was to say the least both discourteous and unstatesmanlike. No matter if the government does feel that the country should retrench in its expenditures the fact that these men were given to understand that the gratuity would be discussed with them that at least should have been done and the government would have been justified if they had laid all their cards on the table if they had laid all their cards on the table and shown them that it was an impossible thing and then refused the gratuity. As it now stands they feel that a rank injustice has been done them and they have not been shown that a country that went on for three or four years, and would have gone longer, if necessary, spending millions for war purposes, cannot raise the amount needed to put them a level with those who stayed at home working at high wages. Public feeling is with them in this matter as the U.F.A., the Ministry, the Orangemen, and dozens of other organizations have shown by resolutions, and it is only a matter of simple justice to men who were called upon to face death that their side of the story should be heard by those in authority. No doubt if such a conference was held ways and means could be found to overcome the difficulties in the way because a very large number of these men are as intelligent as our legislators and also know that any more financial obligations placed upon the country will have to be met by themselves as well as others.

Who Are The Truly Patriotic?

A wealthy Englishman subscribed
$75,000.00 to one of the Brit. War Loans and turned the bonds back to the Government. In an anonymous letter to the press he said "the wealthy classes know the danger of the present debt. Let them impose upon themselves, each as he is able, a voluntary levy. It should be possible to pass to the exchequer, within twelve months, such a sum as would save the taxpayer $250,000,000.00 a year. I give one-fifth of my estate as a thank-offering in the firm conviction that never again shall we have such a chance of giving our country that form of help which is so vital at the present moment." In the U.S.A. Henry Ford is having his accounts audited by the government—at his own request so that he can pay into the exchequer every cent he has made during the war.
What about Canada? Well, there are the "War Profiteers," and to think of any one of them coming out voluntarily with a sum of money to relieve the exchequer would be like trying to draw blood from a turnip.

Gasoline Prices.

Whatever else may go up in price this fall and winter there is not likely to be an increase in the cost of gasoline. G. W. Mayer, vice-president of the Imperial Oil Company, who was in Edmonton, is authority for that statement, which therefore may safely be taken for all the comfort there is in it.

Gasoline prices are expected to stay at their present level, there being no tendency toward a rise in the Canadian market. Mr. Mayer says the drop of one cent a gallon a few months ago is the only change in price that has been made this year, and there are no indications of a further change, one way or the other, for some time yet.

The goods you buy from mail order houses outside of this Province will frequently not prove satisfactory.

Wives and Mothers Need Not Have Sore Backaches

Constantly on their feet, attending to the wants of a large and exacting family, women often break down with nervous exhaustion.

In the stores, factories, and on a farm are weak, ailing women, dragged down with torturing backache and bearing down pains.

Such suffering isn't natural, but it's dangerous, because due to diseased kidneys.

The dizziness, insomnia and other symptoms of kidney complaint can't cure themselves, they require the assistance of Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which go direct to the seat of the trouble.

To give vitality and power to the kidneys, to lend aid to the bladder and liver, to free the blood of poisons, probably there is no remedy so successful as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. For all womanly irregularities their merit is well known.

Because of their mild, soothing and healing effect, Dr. Hamilton's Pills are safe, and are recommended for girls and women of all ages; 25c per box at all dealers. Refuse any substitute for Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut.

THE COW PUNCHER

Dave's duties were simple enough. He had to drive a wagon to a coal yard, where a very superior young man, with a collar, would express surprise that he had been so long, and tell him to back in under chute number so-and-so. It appeared to be always a matter of great distress to this young man that Dave did not know which chute to back under until he was told. Having backed into position, a door was opened. There was a fiction that the coal in the bin should then run into the wagon box, but, as Dave at once discovered, this was merely a fiction. Aside from a few accommodating lumps near the door, the coal had to be shovelled. When the box was judged to be full the wagon was driven on to the scales. If the load were too heavy some of it had to be thrown off, while the young man with the collar passed remarks appropriate to the occasion. If the load were too light less distress was experienced. Then Dave had to drive to an address that was given him, shovel the coal down a chute located in the most inaccessible position the premises afforded, and return to the coal yard, where the young man with the collar would facetiously inquire whether Mrs. Blank had invited him in to afternoon tea, or if he had been waiting for a change in the weather.

Conditions in the boarding-house had the value of distracting Dave's attention from the unpleasantness of his work. Mrs. Metford, handicapped by her numerous offspring, embittered by the regular recurrence of her contributions to the state, and disheartened by dudgeon and overwork, had long ago ceased to place any store on personal appearance or even cleanliness. As Dave watched her slovenly shuffle to and from the kitchen, preceded and pursued by young Metfords in all degrees of childish innocence, his mind flew back to dim recollections of his own mother and the quiet, noiseless order of their home. Even in the latter days, when he and his father had been anything but model housekeepers, they had never known such squalor as this.

Metford's attitude toward his wife fluctuated from coarse humor to brutality, but there was left in the woman no spark of spirit to resist. With neither tongue nor eye did she make any response, and her shuf-flings back and forth were neither hastened nor delayed by the pleasure of her lord. Her bearing was that of one who has suffered until the senses are numb, who has drunk the last dregs of bitterness, for whom no possible change of condition can be worse. Her indifference was tragic.

The sleeping accommodations had the virtue of simplicity. The Metford tribe was housed in a lean-to which supported one wall of the kitchen, and the eight boarders slept upstairs over the main part of the house. The room was not large, but it had four corners, and in each corner stood a cheap iron bed with baggy springs and musty mattress. The ceiling, none too high at any part, sloped at the walls almost to the edges of the beds. One table and wash basin had to serve for the eight lodgers; those who were impatient for their turn might omit their ablutions altogether or perform them in the horse-trough at the barn.

All Metford's employees, with the exception of Dave, were foreigners, more or less inconstant with the English language. Somewhat to his surprise, they maintained an attitude of superiority toward him, carrying on their conversations in a strange tongue, and allowing him little part in their common life. Dave's spirit, which had always been accustomed to receive and be received on a basis of absolute equality, rebelled violently against the intangible wall of exclusion which his fellow workers built about themselves, and as they had shown no desire for his company he retaliated by showing still less for theirs, with the result that he found himself very much alone and apart from the life of his new surroundings.

His work and supper were over by seven o'clock each evening, and now was the opportunity for him to begin the schooling for which he had left the ranch. But he developed a sudden disinclination to make the start; he was tired in the evening, and he found it much more to his liking to stroll down town, smoke cigarettes on the street corners, or engage in an occasional game of pool. In this way the weeks went by, and when his month with Metford was up he had neglected to find another position, so he continued where he was. He was being gradually and unconsciously submerged in an inertia which, however much it might hate its present surroundings, had not the spirit to seek a more favorable environment.

So the fall and winter drifted along; Dave had made few acquaintances and no friends, if we except Conward, whom he frequently met in the pool rooms, and for whom he had developed a sort of attachment. His first underlying sense of distrust had been lulled by closer acquaintance; Conward's mild manner and quiet, seductive voice invited friendship, and it became a customary thing for the two to play for small stakes, which Dave won as often as he lost.

One Saturday evening as Dave was on the way to their accustomed resort he fell in with Conward on the street. "Hello, old man," said Conward, cheerily, "I was just looking for you. Got two tickets for the show tonight. Some swell dances in the chorus. Come along. There'll be doings."

There were two theatres in the town, one of which played to the better class residents. In it anything of a risqué nature had to be presented with certain trimmings which allowed it to be classified as "art," but in the other house no such restrictions existed. It was to the latter that Conward led. Dave had been there before, in the cheap upper gallery, but Conward's tickets admitted to the best seats in the house. Dave had adopted town ways to the point where he changed his clothes and put on a white collar Saturday evenings, and he found himself amid the gay rustle and perfumes of the orchestra floor with a very pleasant sense of being somebody among other somebody. The orchestra played a swinging air, to which his foot kept tap, and presently the curtain went up and the show was on with a rush of girls and color.

It was an entirely new experience. From the upper gallery the actors and actresses always seemed more or less impersonal and abstract, but here they were living, palpitating human beings, almost within hand reach, certainly within eye reach, as Dave presently discovered. There was a trooping of girls about the stage, with singing and rippling laughter and sweet, clear voices; then a sudden change of formation flung a line of girls right across behind the footlights, where they tripped merrily through motions of mingled grace and acrobatics. Dave found himself regarding the young woman immediately before him; all in white she was, with some scintillating material that sparkled in the glare of the spotlight; then suddenly she was in orange, and pink, and purple, and mauve, and back again in white. And although she performed the various steps with smiling abandon, there was in her dress and manner a modesty which fascinated the boy with a subtlety which a more reckless appearance would have at once defeated.

And then Dave looked in her face. It was a pretty face, notwithstanding its grease-paint, and it smiled right into his eyes. His heart thumped between his shoulders as though it would drive all the air from his lungs. She smiled at him—for him! Now they were away again; there were gyrations about the stage, he almost lost her in the maze; a young man in fine clothes rushed in, and was apparently being mobbed by the girls, and said some lines in a rapid voice which Dave's ear had not been trained to catch; and then he danced about with one of them—with the very one—with his one! My, how nimble she was! He wondered if she knew the young man very well. They seemed very friendly. But he supposed she had to do that anyway; it was part of her job; it was all in the play. Certainly the young man was very clever, but he didn't like his looks. Certainly he could dance very well. "I could make him dance different to the tune of a six-shooter," Dave said to himself, and then flushed a little. That was silly. The young man was paid to do this, too. Still it looked like a very good job. It looked like a very much better job than shovelling coal for Metford.

Then there was a sudden break-away in the dance, and the girl disappeared behind a forest, and the mobbing of the young man recommenced. Dave supposed she had gone to rest; dancing like that must be hard on the wind. He found little to interest him now in what was going on on the stage. It seemed rather foolish. They were just capering around and being foolish. They were a lot of second-raters. And the young man—it was plain he didn't care a whit for them; he was just doing it because he had to. There was a vacant seat in front. He wished the girl behind the forest would come down and rest there. Then she could see the show herself. Then she could see—

But there was a whirr from the forest, and the girl re-appeared, this time all in red, but not nearly so much in red as she had previously been in white. My, what a quick change she had made! And how her skirt stood out like a rim when she whirled herself! And the young man left all the rest and went to dance with her again. Dave was not altogether pleased with that turn of events. But presently the dance broke up, and they were flung again in line across the stage. And there she was, all in red—no, not all in red, but certainly not in any other color—right before him. And then she looked down and smiled again at him. And he smiled back. And then he looked at Conward and saw him smiling, too. And then he felt a very distressing uncertainty, which brought the color slowly to his face. He resolved to say nothing, but watch. And his observations convinced him that the smiles had been for Conward, not for him. And then he lost interest in the play.

Actors' Strike in New York

New York.—Two more theatres, the Casino and Liberty, were forced to close last night by a walk-out of stage hands and musicians, in sympathy with the striking Actors' Equity Association. This brings the total of New York's playhouses closed by the strike to 23, and leaves vaudeville houses almost supreme on Broadway. But three legitimate houses remain open, and two of these are not affiliated with the Producing Managers' Protective Association.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 7

PARABLES OF THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN

1. The Parable of the Mustard Seed (v. 31, 32).

Three things mainly occupy our attention in this parable:

1. Its unimportant beginning. It begins as the least of all seeds and grows to be the greatest among herbs. The king was of ordinary parentage and humble circumstances. He selected unlettered fishermen as his royal advisers. The prophet had said concerning him that he would be "despised," "rejected," "forsaken," "cut off" and as "having nothing."

2. Its vigorous growth. From these small beginnings Christ's influence has gone forth so that there is no power or influence equal in greatness to that of Christendom.

3. Its lodging capacity.

The birds which find lodgment in the tree do not represent the children of men who find safety and salvation in the church. The birds constitute no part of the tree, while the believer becomes a part of the tree, adding to its strength and fruitfulness. The birds are something foreign to the tree, and are burdensome and injurious to it. They come to find shelter and wait to pluck off the tender buds, or to prey upon the ripened fruit. The effect of their lodging in the tree is evil and blighting. In Christ's interpretation (v. 19) he said that the fowls represent the wicked ones. He who would make the lodgers here anything else makes Christ's interpretation a farce. The same Greek word is used in both cases, and the circumstances are the same.

11. The Parable of the Leavened Meal (v. 23).

Three things mainly occupy our attention here: the meal, the woman, and the leaven.

1. The meal. Meal has a wholesome and nutritious effect. It was used in one of the sweet-savor offerings which was typical of Christ (Lev. 2:1-3 R. V.); it was food for the priests (Lev. 6:15-17 R. V.); Abraham had Sarah to knead a cake out of three measures of meal for the angelic messengers of the Lord (Gen. 18:6); Solomon's royal table was provided with meal (1 Kings 4:22); Elijah was fed upon a cake made of meal (11 Kings 4:41); Elisha used meal as an antidote for the poison of death from the pot (11 Kings 4:38-41).

2. The woman. In scripture we find false doctrine being taught by woman (Rev. 2:20). Dealing with doctrine is forbidden to women (1 Tim. 2:12). In 1 Tim. 4:13; 11 Tim. 2:17, 18; 11 Peter 2:1-3, we find that the apostasy will be brought in through false teaching within the ranks of God's people. The meaning, then, of the parable is that the true doctrine, the mean given for the nourishment of the children of the kingdom (11 Peter 2:2, 1 Tim. 4:6), will be officially corrupted by false doctrine. Woman is a type of the church in some sense. The church is hiding away false doctrine, and its corrupting effects are seen on every hand.

3. The leaven. In scripture leaven is invariably a type of evil. (1) All through the Old Testament leaven is a continual and unvarying type of evil (Ex. 12:15; Lev. 2:11). It is inconceivable that Jesus should arbitrarily change, without due notice and explanation, a word from an evil to a good sense, which the Spirit of God had so unchangingly used for two thousand years. (2) Jesus himself makes leaven to denote sin (Matt. 16:6, 12; Mark 8:15). (3) Paul uses leaven in its usual biblical sense (1 Cor. 5:6-8; Gal. 5:8, 9). Further, this is the only interpretation that will harmonize with Christ's interpretation of the first two parables. Facts patent to all prove that the professed church today is feeding upon the leaven of formalism and legalism instead of the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth—the Word of God.

111. The Parable of the Hidden Treasure (v. 44).

IV. The Parable of the Merchant-Man Seeking Pearls (v. 45, 46).

V. The Parable of the Drag Net (v. 47-50).

(For a detailed study of the last three parables see the Review for September 28.)

Market For Horses Wanted

New Dominion Minister of Agriculture Outlines Some of His Ideas

Calgary.—Dr. F. S. Tolmie, new Dominion minister of agriculture; Hon. Arthur Meighen, minister of the interior; Hon. J. A. Calder, minister of immigration and colonization, were the chief speakers at a noonday luncheon of the Calgary board of trade. Hon. Charles Stewart, premier of Alberta, was present also.

One of the chief points pressed by Dr. Tolmie in his address was that more attention should be given to mixed farming and the cattle industry. He emphasized the necessity of paying more attention to the British market and also that across the Pacific. He dwelt at some length on the subject of improving breeds of cattle, and announced that the federal department of agriculture was preparing to give prizes for steers at fat stock shows.

Dr. Tolmie also related how the market for high-bred dairy cattle, especially Holsteins from Canada, was becoming constantly wider across the line.

The speaker referred to the importance of finding a market for light horses in Alberta. There was a market in Poland, where the horses and cattle had been stolen by the Germans, but the instability of the government there made it impossible to extend credit. The Americans had shipped in some 200,000 head, and there was need of another 100,000. There also was a need of such horses in Siberia.

He extended his sympathy and promised all the assistance in his power to the farmers in the drouth-stricken area of the west.

Hon. J. A. Calder recalled that he had been a resident of Alberta in 1894, 1895 and 1896, and prophesied a great future for that section of the Dominion, in spite of the drouth.

He said the ministers had come out to personally investigate the alarming reports of the drouth. He had been travelling in the Saskatchewan drouth areas and found the situation not so bad as reported; nevertheless, it must be met. Difficulties in the past had been overcome through the western spirit. We must endeavor, he said, to avoid a repetition of the situation. He thought something could be done. There were extensive areas in Southern Alberta and Saskatchewan that could be irrigated. Wherever that was feasible, it must be done.

Referring to the big war debt of $1,950,000, he said that governments had got into the habit of spending during the war regardless of cost. This had got down to the individual citizen, but if we were to get over the bill we must get these extravagant ideas out of our heads. It was only by work and saving that we could win out. In his visit west, if there was one thing that had struck him, it was the extravagant expenditure on every hand in the cities. A knife must be put in to the lift on all unnecessary expenditures, by the government and by individuals.

The railway policy of the country for the last ten years had also loaded the country staggeringly. There was only one way to solve these questions and that was to bring in as many people of the right class as it was possible to bring in.

Investigate Racing Situation

Ottawa.—The appointment of Dr. Rutherford to investigate the racing situation is favorably regarded by the racing interests, who look to him for what they regard as a square deal. The commissioner's report will be the basis of permanent legislation in the next session of parliament, and the enquiry implements a promise made by Sir Thomas White last session. It is predicted that racing will come back, but with limitation of tracks and a divvying up of receipts with the government.

Germans Still in Courland

Stockholm.—The German troops in Courland have not evacuated that country, according to reports from Helsingfors. On the contrary, they are preparing an offensive from there against the Bolshevik, and are bringing considerable bodies of Russian prisoners from Germany in order that they shall participate in the proposed attack.

Warning Against Hoarding Sugar

Toronto.—With reference to an Ottawa dispatch of August 23, stating that the wholesale grocers, in their convention at Ottawa, had predicted that sugar would rise to 20 cents a pound before the present shortage would be relieved, Hugh Blain, president of the Wholesale Grocers' association of Canada, said: "There must be some mistake about this, as no discussion took place at the convention as to what the price of sugar was likely to be. It was, however, stated to the convention that speculators in the United States had bought fifty cars of granulated sugar, held in Halifax, at the regular Canadian price, but it had been resold to other speculators in the United States and was now offered at $13.90 at Halifax to the Dominion government, and I believe a few cars were bought at this price. The convention generally felt that to buy sugar at such a figure might have the effect of creating an advance on all sugars, which would be most unfortunate."

It was also felt that selling this sugar would have the appearance of profiteering, even if sold again at cost, because sugar is sold today in Montreal to the wholesale trade at $10.40 and $10.50, with the usual discount off, and is resold to the retail trade at these figures, with the freight added. The shortage in sugar has been caused entirely through the lack of shipping facilities, owing to the marine strike, which prevented refiners from getting raw sugar, and if shipping facilities can be restored to normal conditions without further delay, we should get supplies of refined sugar to meet our requirements within the next 30 or 60 days.

"I would like to warn the public against buying sugar beyond their pressing requirements, because hoarding sugar is certainly going to increase the price to the consumers, who will be in want, besides depriving the rest of the public from getting their fair share of what sugar is to be had. Every wholesale and retail grocer should furnish their customers with the smallest quantity of sugar they can get along with until sugar becomes more plentiful."

Wheat Board to Meet at Toronto

Winnipeg.—A public meeting of the Canadian Wheat Board will be held in the Board of Trade rooms, Royal Bank building, Toronto, Ont., at 9.30 a.m., Monday, September 8, when the board will hear expressions of opinion from the public on the scheme for the handling of the 1919 wheat crop.

Lloyd George Calls Halt To Expenditures

London.—After his recent speech in the House of Commons, in which he insisted upon economy, Premier Lloyd George wrote to his ministerial colleagues, calling attention to the huge national expenditure and impressing upon them the need of immediately curtailing. The letter, as quoted by the Daily Mail, says among other things:

"The time has come when each minister ought to make clear to those under his control that if they cannot reduce expenditure they must make room for somebody who can. That is the public temper and it is right."

The Premier declares it is indefensible that the staffs of the public services have hardly been reduced perceptibly since the ending of the war, and says that those responsible must be compelled to perform their duty, however unpleasant. With regard to ruthless cutting, he adds: "We must content ourselves with the second best where the best is too costly."

The Premier concludes by telling the ministers that they must find time during recess to consider the best method of dealing with the question and report to him by midnight what steps they have taken or propose to take.

Stop Work On Warships

Step May Involve Loss of Some 25 Million Pounds

London.—All private shipbuilding yards throughout the country, numbering about twenty, are affected by the government order that all work be stopped on warships except those about to be launched.

The Admiralty yards at Chatham, Devonport and Portsmouth will not stop, however, as they are entirely occupied with the refitting of 2,700 steamers which are about to be returned to the owners from whom they were requisitioned for war service. Among the warships being built at private yards are cruisers, destroyers and submarines, and the work on some of these may be continued, according to the Mail, if it is found cheaper to complete them than to break them up.

Shipbuilders must be liberally compensated in cases where contracts are broken, but although several million pounds sterling may be involved, it may prove more economical than carrying out the building program.

The Mail quotes an officer of the Admiralty as saying that one sound reason for stopping work on warships is that the step will clear the yards for commercial building. There is an excellent demand for new tonnage, and this work will probably absorb the men liberated by the stoppage of work on naval vessels. According to the Glasgow Daily Record, work on 40 warships valued at $125,000,000 has been stopped.

Abdicated Ruler Sues for Estate.

Berlin.—Former Duke Charles Edward of Coburg-Gotha has filed a suit against the republic of Gotha and its commissioners to recover his estate, which was confiscated when he declined to accept a settlement of 15,000,000 marks.

The Prince of Waldeck-Pyrmont is also suing for the recovery of half of his domain after the failure of negotiations with the new government.

Sending Families to Switzerland

Geneva.—Swiss newspapers state that nearly all the Bolshevik leaders in Russia and Hungary, and even in Germany, have sent their wives and relatives to Switzerland lately for safety, thereby condemning their own regime of terror.

The women were supplied with false passports, chiefly Czechoslovak, and false names. The Swiss authorities have discovered this trickery and are applying stricter measures on examination.

Denies Report

That Great Britain Is Seeking Railway Concession Through Estonia

Copenhagen.—The Estonian press bureau officially denies the report recently printed by the National Tidende that Great Britain is seeking a railway concession through Estonia to Russia, or that negotiations are under way for the lease of the islands of Dago and Oesel.

The National Tidende declared that negotiations were proceeding for the lease of Dago and Oesel, in the Baltic Sea, to England for the construction of a commercial port. The paper also states that England was seeking a railway concession through Estonia to reach the Russian market.

$10,000,000 Silk Cargo

Vancouver.—Ten million dollars' worth of silk, carried in four special trains, has left Vancouver for the east. The shipment was brought from the Orient on the Empress of Asia.

Cannot Rely On States

Sir Auckland Geddes Says Europe Must Work Independently

London.—Sir Auckland Geddes, Minister of National Service and Reconstruction, speaking at Basingstoke on government economy, said that a special financial committee, of which Premier Lloyd George is chairman, has been formed for that purpose and that the Premier was throwing himself with great energy into the work of cutting down expenditure.

Sir Auckland said that it was useless to rely on the United States to pull the British people through their difficulties. The United States had her own trade difficulties. She had increased the industrialism of her population and was not only a great exporter of manufactures, but the greatest exporter of raw materials.

She was in the unhappy position of possessing so much that there was little she wanted, and, as a result, exchange between New York and London moved in her favor and, therefore, against her power to export. Moreover, because Britain required United States raw material, he said, it was increasingly difficult for the United States to get her manufactures across the Atlantic. The only result of United States flooding Europe with goods would be a movement of exchange in her favor, making the price of United States goods in this country prohibitive. Europe must, therefore, work out her own salvation, he declared.

Admit Loss Of Odessa

Reds Could Not Stand Bombardment in Black Sea

London.—Occupation of Odessa, chief Russian port on the Black Sea, by allied forces is admitted in a Bolshevik government wireless message from Moscow received here. The occupation was effected, the dispatch states, after thirty vessels had bombarded the city for two days.

On the Russian northwestern front, according to the soviet statement, the Bolshevik troops are advancing in the region of Pskov, having progressed already to within three and one-half miles of that city.

Shortly after the Bolshevik message was received, confirmation was given in official quarters here of the occupation of Odessa. A Russian volunteer army, it is stated, had occupied the city. The Bolsheviks retired in the direction of Balta, 120 miles northwest of Odessa.

Withdraw From One Big Union

Vancouver.—The Vancouver postal workers have withdrawn from the Vancouver trades and labor council (One Big Union). The vote of a referendum that has been in progress for the past two weeks was counted here. The result was given as 314 in favor of withdrawing and 90 against.

There are approximately 400 members of the Postal Workers' Association in Vancouver.

The Bremen Not Captured

London.—There is no truth in the report that the German submarine Bremen was captured during the war and returned recently to Germany, according to official information given out here. It was added that the British Admiralty had no knowledge concerning the fate of the Bremen, but that it is assumed the submarine foundered while endeavoring to cross the Atlantic.

U. S. Government Forces Prices Down

German Ambassadors Chosen

Dr. Solf Will Represent Germany in Great Britain

Berlin.—Dr. Hansel von Hainhausen, former counsellor of the German embassy at Washington, has been selected for appointment as German ambassador to the United States, according to authoritative information.

Dr. W. S. Solf, the secretary for the colonies, is the selection for ambassadorship to Great Britain, and Herr Badowitz, former under-secretary of state, for the ambassadorship to China.

Fritz August Thiel, former German consular representative in Japan, has been picked for the post of ambassador at Tokio.

The appointments of the men selected for ambassadorships, it is stated, depend upon the attitude of the powers in question. If they send charge d'affaires to Berlin, Germany will take like action as to representation in the capitals of such powers.

There is no mention at present of the selection of a German ambassador to France.

Washington.—No inquiry has been made of the United States as to whether Von Hainhausen, former counsellor of the imperial German embassy here, would be acceptable as ambassador, but there is every indication that this government will not receive Hainhausen or anyone else formerly connected with the embassy under the regime of Count von Bernstorff.

600 Huns Deported

Sydney, N.S.W.—Following out the announced policy of the government, 600 more Germans have been deported. They include several well-known buyers.

Brussels.—The Belgian senate unanimously approved the peace treaty with Germany. The chamber of deputies ratified the treaty August 8.

Washington.—Prices are beginning to turn downward in various parts of the country, but the slump has not yet gathered momentum sufficient to affect purchases being made for immediate use, according to reports to the department of justice.

Attorney-General Palmer, asked how soon results could be expected from the campaign to reduce the cost of living, the outcome of which railroad employees have been requested to await before pressing demands for wage increases, said all the government wanted was a fair chance to show what could be done to take the artificial inflation out of the market. He said officials were well pleased with the success so far attained and that cumulative results were expected when congress enacts amendments to the food control law by which criminal penalties can be imposed on profiteers and hoarders.

"We hope the public will begin to reap the benefit of our efforts before long," Mr. Palmer said. "For instance, we are making progress in obtaining promises from shoe manufacturers as to fixing a limit beyond which prices shall not go."

Wanted Dangerous Correspondence Destroyed

Basle.—Rumanian military authorities have discovered in the archives of the Hungarian foreign ministry a telegram from Otto Bauer, former Austrian state secretary, entrusted with the management of the state bureau of foreign affairs of Bela Kun, former head of the Hungarian communist government, asking him to destroy all documents relative to the delivery of arms by Austria to Hungary, according to a Budapest dispatch received here.

Rome to Naples By Air

Rome.—Announcement is made here of the inauguration of passenger airplane service between this city and Naples.

Rapid Advance On Western Russian Front

London.—A communique issued by the War Office states that General Denikine's advance on the western Russian front continues with great rapidity all along the line.

The capture of Odessa is confirmed, the city having been taken by a detachment of volunteers after two days' bombardment in the Black Sea. The detachment was landed and drove the Bolsheviks out of the town.

Along both banks of the Dnieper the volunteers advance toward Kiev is progressing.

It is stated on reliable authority that the Bolshevik forces throughout the whole of the Ukraine are completely demoralized.

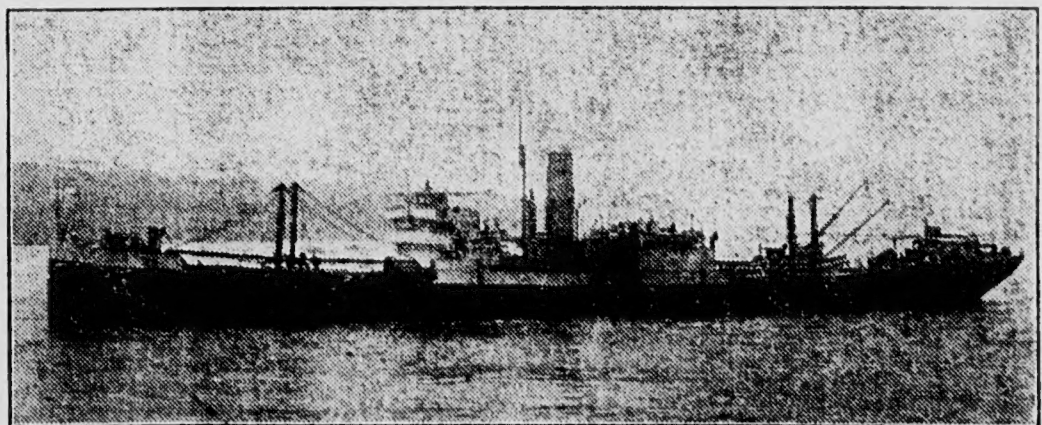

Paris.—General Denikine, the anti-Bolshevik leader in southern Russia, now dominates a territory larger than Germany, and his forces are daily progressing into central Russia with comparatively slight opposition.

His actual front two days ago, according to accurate military information received here, extended from a few miles east of Odessa northward to Elizabetgrad, then northeast to a few miles south of Kursk, thence east to Novookopersk, continuing to a point on the Volga, a few miles south of Saratov. (Since this dispatch was received the capture of Odessa by anti-Bolshevik forces has been announced.)

General Denikine also occupies all the Caucasus region from the Caspian to the Black Sea and south to the Georgian border. His forces are not occupying Astrakhan, at the mouth of the Volga, but he controls traffic on that river by occupying Tzaritzen and a stretch along the river running northward for a distance of 200 miles.

Didsbury Agricultural Society EXHIBITION

WILL BE HELD ON THURSDAY AND FRIDAY

September 25 and 26

We want every man and woman to become a member of our Fair and to assist us to make this the most successful Fair ever held in Didsbury.

Bring your prize winning live stock and let us co-operate to show our neighbors what we can do.

There is no better district in all Alberta for agriculture and mixed farming. Let everyone take a hand in it.

Ladies! Don't forget we want you to participate. Bring some of that home-made bread, cookies, pies, canned fruits, butter, and then to decorate, bring your house plants.

Boys and Girls! You should take part. Get a prize list and you will find it is more complete this year, there being many new articles you can exhibit.

BERGEN NEWS

Grain cutting is now general at Bergen and the crops are very good.

Miss Lucille Michelson who was taken seriously ill about six weeks ago is now recuperating and we hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira D. Gamble were visitors at Rev. H. Edwanson's home last Wednesday on their way home from a visit to C. D. Carvers.

The prayer meeting was held at C. O. Johanneson's last Wednesday. It will be held at John Hang's next Wednesday.

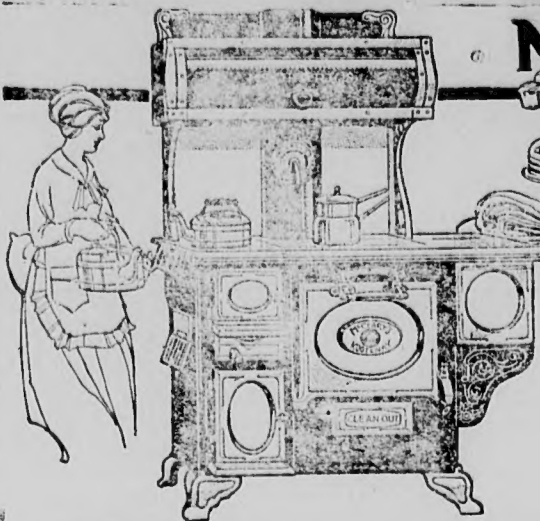

C. B. Post, C. J. Erickson and Ezud Eliason were led quite a merry chase in trying to make C. J. E.'s bull go south when he was intent on going north.

N. B. Hays of Airdrie spent last week at his ranch at Bergen.

School opened on August 25th with Miss N. Meckleborg as teacher. So far attendance has not been very good.

Parents rush your children to school.

Work on the new road from Bergen north to Sundre is at a standstill at present on account of the harvest.

McClary's Kootenay

TOP, bottom and all four sides of the Kootenay oven are evenly heated. That is why it is so famous as a dependable baker. There is a thermometer, too, to tell whether the heat is right or not.

No range is quite so easily managed. Duplex grates clear the ashes at a single turn. Burnished cooking-top never needs blacklead. Nicked steel oven walls are kept clean with a damp cloth. Well-fitted joints and dampers hold the fire—and the oven heat—for hours.

Let us show you the Kootenay.

This country is making great strides in raising grain and promises to keep John Hang busy with his new binder cutting the old jobs.

Mrs. J. J. Koudsvig of Camrose and daughter, Mrs. J. A. Mjelsness, of Didsbury, were visitors in this neighbourhood last week end.

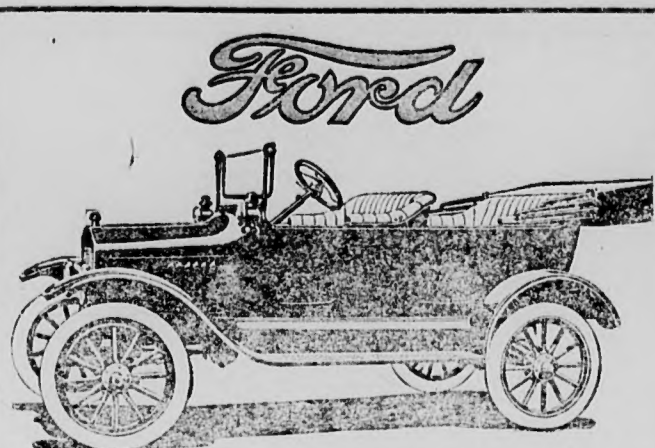

Mrs. C. O. Johanneson, as the result of an attack of scarletina is suffering with rheumatism. Cy. seems quite healthy after his sojourn at the Calgary General Hospital and can be seen nowadays riding the binder.

The Problem.

The problem of last week must have interested quite a number of readers if replies count for anything. Miss Bessie Clemens, wins the prize. Not only was her answer the first to be found correct, but the illustration given in the solution is exceptionally clear and understandable. Correct replies were also received from Miss Ruby V. Weber and Mr. R. B. Martin. The prices of the articles were $80 and $70. Other replies were found to be correct but were, as far as could be judged, mere guesswork. One reply was very amusing wherein the writer says: "I was up late three nights and have come to the conclusion that it can't be done." This gentleman's arithmetic must be something like the Irishman's. An Irishman was asked to answer the following: "10c a head, 5c. an eye, how many herring would 20c buy?" After using up several scraps of paper, rolling his tongue, and scratching his head, he asked "Did you say herring?" "Yes." "And I've been all this time reckoning mackerel."

Book-keepers, as a rule, do not trouble to tell the merchant employers the financial benefits derived by taking advantage of every discount offered by wholesale houses. This is more often than not the fault of the merchant himself.

Try this for an example: Mr. Makemoney purchased a bill for $800 on which he is entitled to a discount of 2 per cent if paid within ten days. Not having the cash he arranged to have his note discounted at the bank, made at 60 days, at 6 per cent, for an amount which, when discounted, the proceeds will pay the bill. How much did he save by the operation? Take the year as 360 days.

"A Joan of Arc Machine"

"SHE withstood everything in the field and above all was, and still is, the last and only car to survive until the cessation of hostilities."—Extract from letter received by Ford Motor Company from a British Soldier, in Africa.

Over shell-torn roads, through water soaked fields, second only to the tanks in its power to climb debris and crater holes, the Ford car made a world famous record in the fighting area of the great war. In press despatches, in field reports, in letters, in rhyme and song the praises of the Ford were sounded.

In France	-	700 cars out of 1,000 were Fords
In Italy	-	850 cars out of 1,000 were Fords
In Egypt	-	996 cars out of 1,000 were Fords
In Mesopotamia	-	999 cars out of 1,000 were Fords

The Ford power plant that established this world-wide record in every theatre of the war remains the same. It will be in the Ford you buy.

Ford Runabout $600. Touring $600. On Open models the Electric Starting and Lighting Equipment is $100 extra. Coupe $675. Sedan $1,175 (closed model prices include Electric Starting and Lighting Equipment). Demountable rims, tire carrier, and non-skid tires on rear as optional equipment on closed cars only at $45 extra. These prices are F.O.B. Ford, Ont., and do not include War Tax.

Buy only Genuine Ford Parts. 700 Canadian Dealers and over 2,000 Service Garages supply them.

Von Beulow On The War

Tells What He Knows About Who Started the Trouble

Berlin.—Prince Bernhard von Buelow, former German chancellor, has in a rather belated manner entered the list of those making reservations concerning the outbreak of war by writing a letter to the Fremdenblatt of Hamburg, regarding the statement made by Dr. Theobald von Bethmann-Hollweg, chancellor in 1914, that the declaration of war was inevitable. Prince von Buelow sketched his long years as chancellor, tells how he was unable to avoid war and admits that peace was desired by Dr. Bethmann-Hollweg, who, he says, however, "lacked political art."

"During the grave weeks before the war," writes Prince von Buelow, "serious diplomatic and political mistakes were made by Germany's political leaders which were unjustly ascribed to the people's responsibility."

Bolshevik Troops Murder Persians.
London.—Details have reached here of the murder by Bolsheviks of Ibadullah, the Persian consular agent at Armavir, Armenia, together with 310 Persian subjects, of whom 70 were Mohammedans and forty Christians.

When the volunteer army evacuated Armavir, July 27, according to the reports, the Bolshevik called Ibadullah out, shot him down and mutilated his body with swords and bayonets. The Bolshevik then herded together all the Persians who had taken shelter under the protection of the Persian flag, and shot them en masse with machine-guns and buried them, partly in the consular graveyard and partly in a common pit.

Monument In A School Yard

A Figure of Young Infantryman Done in Fine Granite

Looking out over grain fields and meadow in one of the best agricultural districts of Huron County, Ontario, is a figure of a young infantryman, done in fine granite. The figure surmounts a base, also of stone, and altogether it is a highly creditable art work. Inscribed on the base of the monument are the names of the young farmers of the district, who gave their lives in the nation's defense in the great war, and also those who enlisted, and those who were wounded. What makes the monument the more striking is the fact that it stands in the corner of a school yard. The three young men whose lives were sacrificed in the war were once scholars in the little white brick schoolhouse. They were the sons of farmers in the neighborhood. They played and studied and worked by turns. Their schoolmates, many of them, are still there. The homes from which they went, and in which there is a vacant chair, are representative homes.—London Free Press.

YES! MAGICALLY! CORNS LIFT OUT WITH FINGERS

You simply say to the drug store man, "Give me a quarter of an ounce of freezone." This will cost very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn from one's feet.

A few drops of this new ether compound applied directly upon a tender, aching corn should relieve the soreness instantly, and soon the entire corn, root and all, dries up and can be lifted out with the fingers.

This new way to rid one's feet of corns was introduced by a Cincinnati man, who says that, while freezone is sticky, it dries in a moment, and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin.

Don't let father die of infection or lockjaw from whittling at his corns, but clip this out and make him try it.

Money is called the circulating medium because it is difficult to circulate without it.

Worms, by the irritation that they cause in the stomach and intestines, deprive infants of the nourishment that they should derive from food, and mal-nutrition is the result. Miller's Worm Powders destroy worms and correct the morbid conditions in the stomach and bowels that are favorable to worms, so that the full nutriment of the child is assured and development in every way encouraged.

Provinces Get Share

Money Voted for Highway Construction to Be Divided

Ottawa.—A conference on the question of highway development was opened here in the office of J. A. Campbell, head of the highways branch of the department of railways.

The problem under discussion relates to the spending of the $20,000,000 voted for highway construction by the Dominion parliament last session. Under the provisions of the legislation adopted $80,000 is to be paid to each of the provinces in a lump sum, and the subsequent assistance will be on the basis of population.

Representatives of provincial highways departments present at the conference included A. McGillivray, of Manitoba; Mr. McLean, of the Ontario Highway Department, and Mr. Carpenter, of the Saskatchewan Highway Department.

Airman Decorated

Major G. H. Scott, Commander of R-34, Given Commandership of O.B.E.

London.—The decorations awarded in connection with the trans-Atlantic flight of the airship R-34 have been gazetted. Major G. H. Scott, commander of the dirigible, is given a commandership in the military division of the Order of the British Empire. Brigadier-General E. M. Maitland, who represented the British Air Ministry in the flight; Capt. G. H. Cook, the navigating officer; Lieut. Guy Harris, the meteorologist; and Lieut. John D. Shutter, engineer officer of the R-34, are awarded the Air Force Cross, and six sergeants who were aboard the airship are given Air Force medals.

Canadian Wounded Station Closed

Portland, Maine.—The transportation of wounded Canadian soldiers from Liverpool through this port to the various military districts in Canada has been completed, according to an announcement by Major Howard Jeffs, the medical officer in charge of the Canadian-hospital clearing depot. Major Jeffs said the transport Essequibo had been removed from the hospital service and that the Araguaya would make one trip to Halifax with 200 wounded men.

Alleged Betrayer Of Edith Cavell

Georges Gaston Quien Will Appear Before Sixth Court-Martial of Paris

Paris.—Georges Gaston Quien, charged with having intercourse with the enemy, and alleged betrayer of Edith Cavell, will appear before the sixth court-martial of Paris. The prosecution claims that it will prove that after obtaining funds and help from the English nurse, Quien went to Holland and returned to Brussels as a German agent and betrayed her to the Germans.

The defence will ask for an indefinite postponement until such time "as the kaiser and other parties primarily responsible for the death of Miss Cavell are brought before an international tribunal."

Telephone Construction in Sask.

School and telephone construction in Saskatchewan continue at a rapid pace, according to the announced authorizations by the local government board. During the week ending July 26, the board issued permits for telephone construction, including new companies and extension to existing lines, to the amount of $357,165. This includes 27 new companies. Bonds are also being sold for eight new companies to the amount of $92,550. During the same period the board authorized the issue of school debentures for seven districts to the amount of $39,300.

BUILD FOR THE LONG WINTER MONTHS

Homes as well as farm buildings should be planned for winter comfort.

If they are comfortable in the winter time they are quite likely to be the rest of the year.

Plan them carefully and use the right material and you can easily have winter comfort without a heavy fuel bill.

OUR FREE PLAN SERVICE offers you the work of some of Canada's most practical home and farm building designers — men who have made a big success at this kind of work. They will take your ideas and make them into plans or they will give you plans made to fit your need.

Flaxlinium should be planned for in the construction of all your buildings the same as you plan to use a good quality of lumber. It is just as important as lumber.

It acts as a shield between you and winters cold and summers heat. It will cut your coal bill very materially.

It will keep your stock warm in the coldest weather. You can't afford to build any home or stock building without it.

Let us tell you at our office, more about this plan service and Flaxlinium as well as the rest of our stock of building material.
